and believe the bandit's motive is to get revenge on his brother, who "peached" on him. James Love was arrested and declares he is not guilty.

NEW ORLEANS OPTIMISTIC.
Mayor Returns from Washington Think San Francisco Hasn't Exposition Canceled.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW ORLEANS, May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mayor Behrman returned from Washington today, where he hurried last Saturday, and he is not at all convinced that San Francisco has the Panama exposition canceled. On the contrary, Mayor Behrman regards the chances for New Orleans as very bright. He was informed of the plan to have the State Legislature adjourn next Tuesday afternoon and go to Washington in a body on a special train for the hearing Tuesday, May 26, and he approved it most heartily.

Resolutions were passed by the General Assembly today providing for the trip. About 140 of 152 legislators will make the journey, and it will cost the exposition company $5000.

Mayor Behrman declared: "With the exception of those having direct interests in California or on the Pacific Coast, I believe I may simply say that there is pretty unanimous opinion at Washington in favor of New Orleans."

DECLARES TIMES OUT OF JOINT.
Warning Against Greed of Money and Social Vice Soundest at Presbyterian Assembly.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) May 19.—"I cannot be a pessimist while God is in His heaven; but I declare to you that, discredited the muck-rakers and the mock reformers as we will, the times are out of joint," said Rev. Dr. James M. Barkley of Detroit today in his sermon opening the 122nd General Assembly of the Presbyterian church.

"Sins that threaten the very existence of this Christian nation are the vulgar race for gain and the rotting sin of social vice," said the speaker. "The former of these evils—the inordinate love of money—is the parental and passionate root of sins that have vitiated the whole world. It has given us the grafter in office and the 'white slave' in society, those twin vipers of civilization."

TRIBUTES TO SUNDAY-SCHOOL.
Convention of Workers at Washington Honored by Congressmen and President.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The sixth world's Sunday-school convention, in session at Washington, has already been the most impressively honored of any religious assembly held in recent years.

In a remarkable resolution of honor and recognition of its work, the House of Representatives adjourned to permit its members to review or participate in the Sunday-school parade Friday afternoon.

President Taft addressed the convention and roused great enthusiasm by his tribute to the necessity of the Sunday-school to American civilization and its place in furthering international peace. Mrs. Taft, who accompanied the President, was introduced to the convention by the President facetiously as "The Real President of the United States."

Rev. W. N. Bell of California gave a great address at an overflow meeting and was one of the great convention orators at today's session.

HOT TALKS FOR OKLAHOMANS.
Republican Leaders, Headed by Speaker Cannon, Will Speak for Party in State Campaign.
GUTHRIE (Okla.) May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Oklahoma Republicans will have an opportunity during the ensuing campaign to hear a number of their party's most prominent men, who are coming to this State to participate in the campaign.

The list will include Uncle Joe Cannon, who will make speeches in the First, Second and Third Congressional districts; Vice-President Sherman, who will speak at Tulsa, Guthrie and other places in the State. Former Congressman Watson of Indiana, who delivered three speeches recently in the First District, will return later to campaign and speak at Oklahoma City and other places.

CHURCHMEN IN HISTORIC SPOT.
LEWISBURG (W. Va.) May 19.—In an old stone church erected here in 1786 "by a few believers in God," so the cornerstones reads, the Presbyterian Church in the United States convened today in its fiftieth general assembly. More than 200 commissioners were present when Dr. W. E. Boggs of Atlanta, Ga., the moderator for the last assembly, called the organization to order.

WILL WIND UP
INQUIRY TODAYTaking of Ballinger Evidence
About Completed.Lawler Admits Old Clash
With Glavis.Newell Wanted to Make Secretary "the Goat."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The Ballinger-Pinchot investigation is likely to end tomorrow—so far, at least, as the taking of evidence is concerned. The "defense" practically had rested when the day's hearing ended, and Attorney Brandeis tonight said his side would consume but little time in the examination of witnesses in rebuttal.

Attorney Vertrees, counsel for the Ballinger-Pinchot, will call one or two more witnesses tomorrow, but expects their contributions to be brief. It is probable that the departure of Senator Root, one of the leading Republican members of the committee, who left today for The Hague arbitration tribunal, had a great deal to do with the decision to bring the hearing to a close.

Mr. Brandeis concluded his cross-examination of Oscar Lawler, Assistant Attorney-General for the Department of the Interior, and author of the now famous tentative draft for the President of a letter dismissing Special Agent L. B. Glavis.

Commissioner Fred Dennett, of the General Land Office, also finished his testimony, and Mr. Perkins, a Chicago officer of the Reclamation Service, was the last witness of the day.

ALLIGES OLD GRUDGE. What was regarded by the "prosecution" as an important admission was obtained from Lawler. Brandeis was endeavoring to show that Lawler retained an old grudge against Glavis that unfitted him for the preparation of a judicial finding to assist the president in passing upon the Glavis charges. He was questioning Lawler along the line when the latter unexpectedly volunteered the allegation that Glavis had "demonstrated" himself to be untruthful. This, he said, was three years ago, when Glavis had made complaint to the attorney general that the government's prosecution of certain land fraud cases in Southern California.

Lawler was then United States Attorney for the Southern District of California, and said that he had been the field division at Oakland. Lawler said the charges were investigated by the Department of Justice, and were found baseless. He went to trial with the case and obtained convictions.

BRANDEIS BLOCKED. An attempt by Brandeis to secure the production of all papers and documents relating to this matter, as filed at the land office, was blocked by the committee as involving a collateral investigation. Brandeis said he desired to show whether Secretary Ballinger knew Lawler entertained such a grudge against Glavis.

In cross-examination of Dennett the fact was brought out that the Interior Department had employed two of its special agents on "detective work" in an effort to connect Forest Service officials with the preparation of the Glavis affidavit, and to trace motives of other critics.

A conversation E. T. Perkins claimed to have had in Chicago, October 23, with F. H. Newell, director of the Reclamation Service, whom it has been alleged, Secretary Ballinger intended to supplant with R. H. Thompson of Seattle, was the most interesting feature of Perkins' testimony. Perkins detailed it as follows:

"You should not try to vindicate Ballinger in the Black Tent matter," Newell said, "I want to make Ballinger the goat."

"You can't do it," Perkins replied. "He's too big a man."

PULLING FOR HETCH-HETCHY. PRESIDENT INTERVIEWED.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, May 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A delegation of San Franciscans, headed by the Mayor and the City Attorney, were taken to the White House today by Senator Flint, who introduced them to the President. They had a visit of an hour with the President, who discussed with them the petition of San Francisco for permission to dam Hetch-Hetchy Valley to make a reservoir of it for the city water supply. The President expressed the opinion that more information regarding the matter was desirable and he said that he would have a commission of army engineers visit the valley to make a thorough report on it. This seemed to be satisfactory to all the parties.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) WASHINGTON, May 19.—Representative McLachlan of California made a speech in the House today on his resolution calling on the Secretary of War for detailed information regarding the military readiness of the country. He explained that his resolution concerned not war, but the problem of the preservation of peace. Mr. McLachlan had a long prepared speech but spoke only for five minutes, being given "leave to print" the rest of his remarks in the Congressional Record.

SIX NEW BISHOPS MADE. (ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) ST. PAUL, May 19.—Significant of the growth of Catholicism in the New World was the splendid ceremony performed by Archbishop Ireland in St. Paul today, by which for the first time since the church came to America six bishops were consecrated simultaneously. These six new bishops of St. Paul province received their divine commission at the hands of their own venerable Metropolitan, assisted by two of his remaining bishops, in the chapel of St. Paul seminary almost precisely at the spot where Father Hennepin, the first Christian missionary to the region of the future province, landed on the bank of the Mississippi, "a league below the Falls of St. Anthony," 230 years ago. The Archbishop, his nine bishops and other priests, gathered now in the province represented a Catholic population of 600,000. At the time the first bishop of St. Paul was consecrated sixty years ago there were two priests and perhaps 1000 members of the church.

"Provided that such order of withdrawal shall not affect or impair the rights of bona fide claimants of oil or gas bearing lands who are in diligent prosecution of their claims, and that the Interior shall make discovery of oil or gas sufficient to perfect their locations; provided further, that this act shall not be construed to authorize the withdrawal of lands from the public domain or enlargement of any rights asserted under any claim initiated after withdrawal made prior to passage of this act."

USING AMERICA AS CLUB. Chinese Seditionists Circulate Reports That Coalitions Are Being Formed in San Francisco.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) WASHINGTON, May 19.—State Department officials are worried by reports that Chinese seditionists are circulating reports that coalitions are being formed in San Francisco. The reports are said to be aimed at the creation of a feeling of prejudice against the Chinese and Americans in general.

It is recalled that many Chinese in the United States come from the province in Kwang Tung, in which Canton is located, and the people there bitterly resent the enactment of the Chinese exclusion laws.

The Yang Tse Valley has for years been the hotbed of seditionist societies, having for its ultimate object the expulsion of all foreigners and the overthrow of the present Manchu dynasty. These societies have been very active since before the Boxer uprising, and it is believed they are largely responsible for the extensive propaganda being carried on throughout the whole empire against the government and all foreigners generally.

It is recalled that during the last year placards have been posted throughout nearly the whole of China to the effect that it was the purpose of the foreigners to subdue China and partition the empire.

APRIL EXPORTS LARGER. OILS, METAL, ETC., DECREASE. (ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) WASHINGTON, May 19.—Exports of copper, illuminating oil, corn, lubricating oil, wheat, flour, lard, bacon, fresh beef and cattle, in April, 1934, showed a decrease over the corresponding month of the previous year, according to a report just made by the Department of Commerce and labor.

The total exports for the month, however, amounted to $127,500,000 as against $125,000,000 for April, 1933. Increases in exports occurred in cotton, rubber, tobacco, lumber, leather, coal, steel, locomotives, cars, wire, tools, automobiles, electrical instruments, autos and turpentine.

FOR RELIEF OF SETTLERS. IMPERIAL VALLEY BILL WAITS. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, May 19.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Consideration of the bill for the relief of Imperial Valley settlers on desert lands was to have been taken up this week, but the bill lost its place on the calendar and now it cannot be taken up before June 4, when Senator Flint believes that it will be passed. Then Smith will pass it or a similar one in the House. Imperial settlers may have been anxious, but it is entirely probable that they will get relief before the session ends.

SICK HEADACHE

THIS CALIFORNIA WOMAN WAS PALE, THIN AND NERVOUS.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Proved to Be Just the Tonic to Restore Her to Health, Strength and Happiness.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have made so many remarkable cures in serious cases that people are liable to overlook their value as a tonic for the blood and nerves in debility and general run-down conditions.

That such conditions are the cause of much misery and unhappiness is fully known to those who suffer from them and the need of curing them is as vital as is relief from diseases with higher sounding names. We commend the following statement to those who suffer from any form of debility resulting from weak, thin blood or shattered nerves.

Mrs. Mary H. Tait, of No. 314 Howard street, Berkeley, Cal., has found Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to be the best tonic that she has ever used. She says:

"About fifteen years ago, when living in Toronto, Canada, I became generally run down and felt miserable for years. I was tired all of the time and didn't want to work or do anything at all. My appetite was not very good and I was thin and pale. I suffered from sick headaches a great deal and was nervous."

"I was treated by a doctor for some time and tried several tonics but without help. A friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to me and I took several boxes. I soon began to feel much better, my appetite came back and the benefits continued until I was cured. I have taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a number of times since as I think they are about the best tonic one can take."

The tonic action of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is direct because they make new blood which carries health and strength to every part of the body. This pure, new blood tones up the weak stomach, strengthens the exhausted nerves and enables every part of the body to perform its work.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are recommended whenever a tonic for the blood and nerves is needed. They have cured anemia, chlorosis, rheumatism, stomach trouble, and the after-effects of the grip and fever. The tonic treatment with these pills is fully described in our diet booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," which will be sent free upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes $2.50. Address: Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

MONEY BACK

If Hymel Doesn't Rid You of Catarrh. Four a few drops of Hymel (pronounced High-ome) into the hard rubber inhaler and you can then breathe into the lungs the very same antiseptic, germ killing air as you would breathe in the Australian forests of eucalyptus, where catarrh is unknown.

And Hymel is so pleasant to use; you'll like to use it; when you breathe it the effect on the inflamed catarrh infected and germ laden membrane is soothing and healing.

In five minutes you get such wonderful relief that you will know that at last you have a cure for catarrh. A Hymel outfit, which consists of a bottle of Hymel, a hard rubber pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper and simple instructions for use, costs only $1.00, and extra bottles of Hymel, if afterward needed, cost only 50c.

And besides catarrh, remember that Hymel is guaranteed to cure asthma, croup, bronchitis, coughs, colds, sore throat, or money back. Hymel is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

SMASH DENS OF GAMBLERS.

Police With Sledges Break Strong Walls.

Find Fresh Evidence Hidden in Queer Crannies.

Automobile Dash Surprises Lottery Operators.

Armed with search warrants and persuasive sledge hammers, Sgt. Sebastian's Chinatown detail made a spectacular raid on four well-fortified Chinese gambling houses last night, arresting many and obtaining evidence under difficulties. Twenty prisoners were booked at the Central Police Station as a result of the raid. They were a picturesque and motley assortment, comprising white men of several nationalities, negroes, and Chinese.

The search warrants were only valuable as decorations, for the sledge hammers were used in battering through heavy oak doors which were studded with iron and steel bolts and braced with sheet iron. A secret approach was made to the places in automobiles loaned for the raid by friends of the Chinatown officers. Seated in these, the men were able to hide their conspicuous uniforms by automobile blankets and to jump out and begin work.

A delay was necessary before making an entrance to the well-protected dens because the police were required to call on the inmates to open up and announce that they had a search warrant. The slippery oriental gamblers hid the evidence of their lottery operations and tried to make their den look like a social gathering place. Unfortunately for the gamblers, the alert officers tapped hidden panels, blind leads and fake wall decorations until they found full lottery outfits, freshly inked, bearing the present Chinese date.

INMATES HIDE EVIDENCE.

Those arrested were taken from No. 426 Sanchez Alley, No. 524 North Los Angeles street, and No. 524 August Alley. The inmates of No. 524 North Los Angeles street managed to hide their evidence and partially clear the place before the police could reach them. Glittering uniforms are said to have given them a warning. The notorious Ah Ching, known to Chinese throughout this country as one of the most slippery of the gambling fraternity, was again arrested. It is said to never become discouraged and always makes money enough to pay all fines.

His close competitors, Ah Sing and Wong Sing, were also gathered in. Wong Dock, alias Wong Ark, who is the king of the Chinatown racket, was in evidence and visited the places to watch the work of the officers. They could not catch him for any offense last night and it is said he does not trust himself in the dens any more.

The peculiar places of hiding lottery outfits gave the officers much trouble when they came to gather evidence, after breaking through the fortifications. In Ah Ching's place, the proprietor made an unfortunate faux pas. When Patrolman Willet, lately returned to his old position, brooked in the door he dashed down into the cellar under the gambling den in pursuit of a shadowy figure and switched on the lights. The glare disclosed a Chinese who was apparently working breaking kindling. He appeared much surprised at the intrusion. His guttural talk would have convinced anyone unacquainted with his type, but it had no effect on the officer, who began a search party.

In a few seconds there was a knock on the cellar window. Willet opened it and Patrolman Mince called out, "May, while I was watching out here in the back alley, a hand stuck out between the bars and shoved something up in a hollow place there." A quick search brought to light a full outfit for lottery which was marked with characters in fresh ink, which proved that a game had been in progress a few minutes before.

When the police battered their way into No. 524 North Los Angeles street they found the proprietor and seven gamblers. No evidence was in sight and they hunted for nearly an hour. They tested panels and woodwork with their sledge hammers and carpenter's tools and finally Patrolman Erwin took a step ladder and climbed up on top of a small closet and began work among a pile of rubbish.

He swung his hammer a few times to break away some loose timber when suddenly the entire mass rose in the air with a crash and flew in all directions, nearly knocking the officer from his perch. A gigantic negro, whose face was temporarily cream colored, called out, "Oh Lawdy, don't tech me with that hammah. I swah I tugh done no habm."

He tumbled down the ladder with quaking limbs and then searched his pockets carefully. After a few seconds he pulled out a rabbit's foot and threw it away without further remark. After every inch of the gambling den had been tested a secret panel which ran up through a blind wall leading around a specially prepared curve which contained a strong box, was found. In this was the gambling outfit which the gamblers had denied existence.

In Ah Chee's place, a veteran inmate was found. Idei Brown, a colored dandy who has been arrested in three raids these last few months, was seated at a table "waitin foh dat lucky number." She thinks some Voodoo has put a hoodoo on her.

In one place a pipehanger was among the gamblers, in another there was a plumber, and in another a carpenter. All of them will probably find it easy to get work repairing the places entered and "tested" for evidence.

The city took in $500 from the prisoners. Four Chinese gamblers put up $50 bail each.

It is said that the interior of Ah Chee's place is partially demolished. This has happened dozens of times before but he quickly rebuilds and makes the place more indestructible and his doors thicker.

A consignment of 100,000 cigar bands, which has just reached New York from Germany is the latest "undesirable" to incur the displeasure of Collector Loeb. The labels are said to be cleverly executed copies of the bands on well-known brands of high-grade cigars and their entry. Collector Loeb believes would be a violation of the law protecting trade marks. The bands are to be destroyed by the government, or exported at the consignee's expense.

COUNCIL WILL MEET IN FALL.

Women's Club Officials Put Off Meeting Date.

Illness of President Moore Is Given as Reason.

Californians Are Still Hopeful for Biennial.

CINCINNATI (O.) May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Through the illness of Mrs. Philip N. Moore of St. Louis, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the general council of that body decided this morning to withhold action on the matter of the next convention city until she can meet with them.

Dr. Frances L. Bishop of St. Louis, her family physician, said that Mrs. Moore had been entirely up and about since her illness last night and that she has been in bed at her apartments in the Sinton Hotel here since she returned from the big meeting. Mrs. Moore will probably go to St. Louis in a few days.

At the session of the general council this morning, Mrs. J. W. Orr and Mrs. A. P. Black of San Francisco, together with Mrs. Joseph Evans of St. Louis, Mrs. Russell Waters and Mrs. William Baughn of Los Angeles were anxious to have the matter of the next biennial settled. However, Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker of Denver, who presided, said she thought it best to keep that matter back for a few months. She put the matter to a vote and it was decided that the question should go over until this fall, when a special session of the general council will be held to consider it.

The general council is composed of the national officials and directors, state presidents and secretaries and presidents of city federations. The meeting will be held in all probably at St. Louis, and will be called by Mrs. Moore, for the latter part of September or early in October.

At this session will be also considered the place for the next formal meeting of the general council, which meets in the year between the general federation biennial.

Portland, Or., and Chicago have asked for this meeting, and the chances are it will be held in Chicago, where women point out that two trips to the Coast or one trip there and one to Salt Lake will be too much for the general council.

It was learned this afternoon, before the California people left for their homes, that Mrs. Moore will go to the meeting this fall to urge that San Francisco be selected for the 1912 meeting.

Mrs. Cowles says that renewed efforts will be put forth by them to secure the biennial for San Francisco and that they will be busy from this time until the council session urging that it will be selected. Salt Lake City now has the upper hand in the race and will probably retain it unless unusual efforts are used by the California delegation.

DEPENDENT OVER HEALTH.

Albert W. Perkins, Well-Known Nevada Miner, Suffered Self Through The Temple.

RENO (Nev.) May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Albert W. Perkins, one of the old-time prominent miners of the Comstock, shot himself through the right temple, Tuesday, death resulting almost instantly. His wife was on the back porch hanging out clothes at the time, and the oldest son, Richard, was asleep in the front room.

Perkins must have been sitting upon the edge of the bed when he fired the fatal shot. The revolver owned by Perkins had not been fired for seventeen years.

Perkins had been suffering from miners' consumption for the last five years, and his condition, which was gradually becoming worse, evidently preyed upon his mind. He gave no indication that he intended killing himself.

Deceased was 64 years old and a native of Vermont. He came to the Comstock when he was 19 years old. He was interested in politics and was a candidate for sheriff last year. He was an active member of the City State Lodge of Masons of Gold Hill, and the Miners' Union. His wife was matron at the County Hospital up to three months ago.

Pretty Stenographer Sues Because Her Neck Is Blue; Couldn't Go to Dance.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Agatha Ford, a pretty stenographer who lives with her parents on West Lake avenue, has instructed her attorney to sue the proprietors of a local bathing pavilion.

On invitation Miss Ford joined a bathing party yesterday, and donned one of the suits regularly kept for hire. Following a two hours' splash the young woman hurried to their dressing room.

"You certainly are the girl in blue," said Miss Ford's companion, as they began to disrobe.

DYNAMITES WOLF PACK.

Alaskan Miner Creates Havoc Among Besiegers—Says Animals Now Avoid Cabin.

TACOMA, May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Designed by his cabin by a pack of hungry timber wolves, his rifle jammed and useless, and a rapidly rising creek threatening to carry away his sluiceways and destroy the work of weeks, Joe de Blondeau, a well-known Alaskan (Alaskan) prospector, scattered the wolves and rescued his imperiled sluiceways by the aid of dynamite.

De Blondeau threw two sticks of dynamite, wrapped in an old sack, with a long fuse attached among the wolves. As the ferocious animals surged around the sack the dynamite exploded. De Blondeau's cabin was shaken by the shock, a huge hole was torn in the frozen ground, and the wolf pack was scattered far and near.

De Blondeau says he thinks that no less than ten wolves were killed by the explosion, but that he could not recover enough fur to establish the casualties. He asserts he has not been bothered by the wolves since he introduced the dynamite.

Charge That Miss Anne Morgan and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont Only Seek Notoriety—Want No Help from Capitalists or Any of Their Relatives—Still They Fight for Vote.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chicagoan Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, were interested in Woman Suffrage for the notoriety and the dominating position to be gained by it, and that they wanted the assistance of no capitalist or capitalist's relatives in their work, delegates to the congress of the Socialist party, now in session here, waged a bitter fight today attempting to arrive at some definite conclusion in shaping their policy for a war for universal suffrage.

"We don't want Anne Morgan to step in and try to tell us how to carry on our campaign. Neither do we want to be the sympathy of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont. Such capitalistic leadership as they would give would not advance our cause an inch," declared Joseph D. Cannon, delegate from Arizona.

The little girls in New York and Philadelphia helped our cause 500 times as much as either of these women whom I have mentioned when they gave 5 cents each toward the cause of the strikers known to Chinese.

A tumult of applause greeted the speaker. Mrs. Margarette Frey of Ohio was given the floor and she at once declared a similar arrangement of Mrs. Belmont and Miss Morgan.

"Who is behind those women?" she asked. "The capitalists, and any man or woman who is backed by capitalists cannot be a member or in any way identified with the Socialist party."

Coroner's Jury in Cherry Mine Disaster Allege Mine Laws Violations Were Committed at.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

PRINCETON (Ill.) May 19.—The Coroner's jury which began its deliberations yesterday to investigate the cause of the Cherry mine disaster, which resulted in the death of 265 miners in the St. Paul coal mine, has reached an agreement, and 250 separate verdicts have been returned.

The jury says the mining laws were broken and that the knowledge and consent of the mine inspectors was necessary in the case in the main shaft; another set for the 157 men who were suffocated in the second vein, and the third for the fifty-one men who were trapped in the third vein and died of exposure and suffocation.

The verdict is a vindication of John Cowley, the engineer in charge of the mine, who said the twelve rescuers lost their lives. The verdict says the rescuers lost their lives "indirectly by a confusion of signals regulating the movement of the cage."

The following verdict was brought in for each of the 167 men who lost their lives in the second vein:

"We find that they came to their death by suffocation, and that the fire was caused by a pitched load of coal having falling in contact with an oil torch."

"And we further find that there was great delay in notifying the men of the danger."

The verdict giving the cause of death to the men in the third vein says:

"We find that they came to their death by exposure and suffocation."

"We further find that the mining laws of the State of Illinois, in relation to means of escape, were violated with the full knowledge and consent of the mine inspectors for District No. Two."

Bridge Builders Labor Incessantly to Finish Before Fall Work Goes Out.

COROVIA (Alaska) May 19.—The builders of the great $1,000,000 cantilever bridge of the Copper River Railroad that will span Copper River diagonally between the Miles and Childs glaciers, are engaged in a race with the summer. False work for the bridge was built on the six-foot ice of the river and the steel is being put in place by men working from the wooden scaffolding that rests upon the ice. Three feet of water is flowing over the ice, and the ice may be swept out any day and with it the false work. If the bridge is not completed before the false work is swept to sea, the loss in extra labor involved will be $150,000, beside the delay to operation of the railroad.

The bridge builders work eighteen hours a day, in the bright Alaska sunshine, and high speed is maintained by a bonus $100 offered to each man if the bridge is completed before the ice goes out.

Three thousand men are at work on the Copper River Railroad, taking advantage of all the daylight.

A bridge across Tielak River at Mile 102 has been begun, and the track to the steamboat landing at Mile 104 will be laid in a few days. Navigation is expected to open about May 25. Trains probably will be running to Chitina by July 10.

The Copper River Railroad, undertaken by a Morgan and Gunderheim interests, extends from Cordova to the Bonanza Copper Mountain and will be completed before November 1.

COUNCIL WILL MEET IN FALL.

Women's Club Officials Put Off Meeting Date.

Illness of President Moore Is Given as Reason.

Californians Are Still Hopeful for Biennial.

CINCINNATI (O.) May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Through the illness of Mrs. Philip N. Moore of St. Louis, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the general council of that body decided this morning to withhold action on the matter of the next convention city until she can meet with them.

Dr. Frances L. Bishop of St. Louis, her family physician, said that Mrs. Moore had been entirely up and about since her illness last night and that she has been in bed at her apartments in the Sinton Hotel here since she returned from the big meeting. Mrs. Moore will probably go to St. Louis in a few days.

At the session of the general council this morning, Mrs. J. W. Orr and Mrs. A. P. Black of San Francisco, together with Mrs. Joseph Evans of St. Louis, Mrs. Russell Waters and Mrs. William Baughn of Los Angeles were anxious to have the matter of the next biennial settled. However, Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker of Denver, who presided, said she thought it best to keep that matter back for a few months. She put the matter to a vote and it was decided that the question should go over until this fall, when a special session of the general council will be held to consider it.

The general council is composed of the national officials and directors, state presidents and secretaries and presidents of city federations. The meeting will be held in all probably at St. Louis, and will be called by Mrs. Moore, for the latter part of September or early in October.

At this session will be also considered the place for the next formal meeting of the general council, which meets in the year between the general federation biennial.

Portland, Or., and Chicago have asked for this meeting, and the chances are it will be held in Chicago, where women point out that two trips to the Coast or one trip there and one to Salt Lake will be too much for the general council.

It was learned this afternoon, before the California people left for their homes, that Mrs. Moore will go to the meeting this fall to urge that San Francisco be selected for the 1912 meeting.

Mrs. Cowles says that renewed efforts will be put forth by them to secure the biennial for San Francisco and that they will be busy from this time until the council session urging that it will be selected. Salt Lake City now has the upper hand in the race and will probably retain it unless unusual efforts are used by the California delegation.

DEPENDENT OVER HEALTH.

Albert W. Perkins, Well-Known Nevada Miner, Suffered Self Through The Temple.

RENO (Nev.) May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Albert W. Perkins, one of the old-time prominent miners of the Comstock, shot himself through the right temple, Tuesday, death resulting almost instantly. His wife was on the back porch hanging out clothes at the time, and the oldest son, Richard, was asleep in the front room.

Perkins must have been sitting upon the edge of the bed when he fired the fatal shot. The revolver owned by Perkins had not been fired for seventeen years.

Perkins had been suffering from miners' consumption for the last five years, and his condition, which was gradually becoming worse, evidently preyed upon his mind. He gave no indication that he intended killing himself.

Deceased was 64 years old and a native of Vermont. He came to the Comstock when he was 19 years old. He was interested in politics and was a candidate for sheriff last year. He was an active member of the City State Lodge of Masons of Gold Hill, and the Miners' Union. His wife was matron at the County Hospital up to three months ago.

Pretty Stenographer Sues Because Her Neck Is Blue; Couldn't Go to Dance.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Agatha Ford, a pretty stenographer who lives with her parents on West Lake avenue, has instructed her attorney to sue the proprietors of a local bathing pavilion.

On invitation Miss Ford joined a bathing party yesterday, and donned one of the suits regularly kept for hire. Following a two hours' splash the young woman hurried to their dressing room.

"You certainly are the girl in blue," said Miss Ford's companion, as they began to disrobe.

One look in the mirror and Miss Ford almost fainted. Her pretty neck and shoulders were a deep blue from that unwashable bathing suit. The stain wouldn't come off. When she reached home she canceled her dance engagement, and mournfully put away her pretty low-necked gown.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Fire Threatens Fine Church.
 Fire in the vestry room of the St. Agnes Church at Vermont avenue and Adams street, yesterday afternoon, for a time threatened the magnificent edifice, valued at $150,000. The blaze was discovered by the janitor, who sent in an alarm. The loss is estimated at about $200, chiefly to the furnishings.

Two More Eclectics.
 The thirty-first annual commencement exercises of the California Eclectic Medical College were held last evening in the assembly hall of the college, No. 237 1/2 South Hill street. There were addresses by members of the faculty and musical selections by the students. The graduates are Dr. Oran Newton and Dr. F. Barbrick.

High Eagle Coming.
 The fraternal order of Eagles is making preparations for an entertainment for Frank E. Herring, grand president of the order, who will arrive here next Thursday. Entertainers Rice and Cohn and Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Dodge are in charge of the arrangements. They intend to hire a hall and procure all of the accessories necessary for a proper entertainment.

For New Doctors.
 The commencement exercises of the Los Angeles Department of the College of Medicine will be held at the Barlow Medical Library, No. 731 North Broadway, on the forenoon of June 2. President Shorer of Troop Polytechnic Institute will speak on “Mighty Brains.” The exercises will be open to the public.

Thousands Lantern Girls.
 Sweethearts, husbands and just plain ordinary men are to be permitted this evening to view the lantern procession of a thousand Y.W.C.A. girls at the Garden Fiesta at Huntington Hall grounds. A dress rehearsal of the various plays will be held yesterday evening and the chairman of committees were delighted with their efforts by way of preparation. The hours during which the fiesta will be open will be from 3 to 6 and from 7 to 10 o'clock p.m.

Fish for Conventions.
 Committees will be appointed by the civic and commercial organizations of the city to cooperate with the Chamber of Commerce and the Southern California Hotel Men's Association in forming a Convention League. A meeting will be called to discuss preliminary plans. The purpose of the proposed league is to keep track of all national organizations and try to get some of their conventions for this city. With the record now enjoyed by Los Angeles as an ideal convention city, the originators of the plan think that a strong boost to the league will be to capture many desirable conventions.

“The Pearl of Savoy.”
 The dramatic section of the Turn Verein Germania will present a five-act drama Sunday night at 8 o'clock in Turner Hall, No. 321 South Main street. The play, “Muttergegen,” or “The Pearl of Savoy,” is a love story of a peasant girl and a French nobleman and the action is supposed to date to the reign of Louis XV of France. The actors have been practicing for the past four weeks and are confident of success. Sixteen members will take part. Those taking the leading roles are Crescentia Renée, Gertel Boettcher, Ernst Rudolph and Rudolf Horn. This is the last play of the season.

Tell of Malibu Road.
 J. R. Ramirez, a son of one of the original owners of the Malibu ranch, offered his testimony before Special Commissioner Longley in the Federal Court yesterday. The government is trying to establish that the Malibu road, which was blocked by orders of Mrs. May K. Rindge, has been a public highway for many years. Ramirez said he was on the ranch as far back as 1885, and that the highway was in use then. Frank W. Hull stated that he owned a homestead in the Santa Monica Mountains. He said he was repeatedly prevented from getting to his property by employees of the Rindge ranch. J. S. Houston testified that the main road and side trails were used by hunters as early as 1885.

Discuss Printing Costs.
 Cost of production and other matters of interest to the craft were discussed at the monthly dinner of the Printers' Board of Trade last evening at the Hollenbeck. Nearly one hundred members of the organization were in attendance. The speakers were Hayes Rice, F. A. Elson, and Fletcher Ford, each of whom gave examples of the application of the cost system in different local establishments. It was shown that the old hit-and-miss plan of estimating fell far short of the actual cost of production in many instances, leaving the way to financial ruin, while, on the other hand, it was proved that the systematic plan of distributing costs is bettering the condition of the local concerns. Figures quoted showed that, in many lines of printing, the charge to the customer here is lower than in many large eastern cities. The Printers' Board of Trade is about to issue a new cost book.

BURIED IN BALLET COSTUME.

Inquiry to Be Made Into Death of Beautiful Girl—Body Bedecked With Costly Jewels.
 (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
 WATSEKA (Ill.) May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rigid investigation will be made of the mysterious burial, in Princess Dell Cemetery, a lonely spot eight miles east of here, of a beautiful girl, apparently about 20 years of age, clad in brilliant ballet costume and decked with costly jewels.

The death certificate announced she had died in hospital at Youngstown, Ohio, two weeks ago. The body came to Iroquois in a costly casket, accompanied by a woman giving her name as Mrs. Ellen Nichols. She said the body was that of her daughter, Miss Delvina Nichols.

The body remained in the Methodist Church over night. Rev. Mr. Crumacher, who was secured to read the burial service, was not satisfied with the death certificate and had the casket opened. Then came the discovery that the girl was clothed in a ballet costume.

After the funeral Mrs. Nichols took the first train for her home in Houston, Tex.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The suspension for intoxication, of E. P. Haley, was granted by the city poundmaster and Mayor's man at the city pound, has started another trouble in the Humane Animal Commission.

The action brought by W. LeMoine Williams against his sister, M. E. Williams, to have the estate of their father declared a trust, began before Judge Wilbur, yesterday. About $500,000 worth of property is involved in the case. The hearing will last three weeks.

In Judge Davis's court this morning, the case against John S. Donovan, charged with embezzling $2100 from Mrs. S. A. Brooks, will be given to the jury.

Judgment for $10,000 was rendered against D. L. Peters, a promoter, in a gas plant deal at Orange, in Judge Conroy's court, yesterday.

John Lapique brought an action in the Superior Court against forty defendants, headed by Judge Monroe, for alleged false imprisonment, in connection with a real estate deal.

AT THE CITY HALL.

DOG-POUND JAG TESTS PULL.

HALEY SUSPENDED, SUPERINTENDENT'S JOB IN DANGER.

Son of Humane Animal Commissioner, Poundmaster and General Pooh-Bah With the Dog-License Money, Reported to the Civil Service for Intoxication.

Haley's jag and not Haley's comet has brought the city dog pound and the Humane Animal Commission into the limelight again. Haley is not the member of the Humane Animal Commission, but the son of that district worker for good government, and the situation he has created is reported to have caused so much friction in the commission that the Mayor may have to find a new one.

Of course, the whole trouble was Haley's jag—that is, the jag, or jag, for, like Haley's comet, the jag had a long tail. Young Edward P. Haley is the son of Francis C. Haley, member of the commission, city poundmaster and, as aforesaid, prominent good government booster for the Linsner machine, and Mayor's man at the pound. Young Haley is a deputy humane animal inspector.

According to a single line sent by A. H. Clark, superintendent of the pound, to the Civil Service Commission, young Haley has been suspended since May 5 for intoxication.

According to C. A. Elder, a member of the commission, it is true, but it is also true that young Haley has been given a two weeks' vacation. Mr. Elder says, of course, it is without pay. "But how can a suspended man get a vacation?" Elder was asked.

"Well," said he, "there has been friction between young Haley and the commission. Clark explains that the senior Haley has been trying to 'get him,' and that when Junior Haley, deputy humane animal inspector, appeared at the pound with a jag, he suspended him. But he couldn't make it stick for Senior Haley restored his son to duty."

"When I suspended him," said Clark, "young Haley gave me the laugh and said his father would put him back. And he did."

A few days later, says Clark, Haley reappeared with a second jag, and his jag was again suspended. This time he made it stick. But the commission, according to Elder, also granted a two weeks' vacation to Haley the younger, probably to keep him under civil service some way.

Elder was asked if there is not friction among the members of the commission.

"Not now," said he. "That has all passed over. Elder was somewhat reluctant to say much.

It is understood, however, that the chief friction is between Haley and Walter G. Schmidt, a member of the commission. Schmidt was out of town yesterday, and his theory was suspended, or ornamented with a two weeks' vacation for intoxication, could not be given. It is understood, however, that Schmidt is backing Clark, and has the support of Elder.

Nearly every one who knows of the trouble seems to be in a state of confusion. Some say young Haley wanted to tear Clark limb from limb when he was suspended the second time, but was prevented by Clark.

A recent examination for the position of superintendent was held by the Civil Service Commission, and will probably be reported on by Examiner Doe Tuesday. Clark was among those examined.

Capt. Eley Exonerated.

Capt. Eley, who is to become Fire Chief next Tuesday, was exonerated from a charge of not paying an obligation by the Fire Commission yesterday. The accusation came at the meeting where he was elected chief and was from Mrs. Le Count, whose husband had loaned the captain money on which a balance was due. Capt. Eley showed an agreement for the payment of the debt in money, stamps and receipts for payments in April and May. Commissioner Robinson moved that the charge be dismissed saying that he thought it had been sent in to prejudice the commission against Eley. Mrs. Le Count's son said he knew nothing of the pending election and merely wanted to get the debt paid quicker. The Mayor told him it didn't look that way.

Ballona Road Money.

C. J. Nellis, of the Board of Supervisors, has sent the Mayor a check for $2464.00 collected by that county for road purposes in that part of Ballona precinct which was annexed to the city is now ready to be turned over to the Los Angeles officials. While the law requires this money to go into the general fund, it has been determined by the Council that it will at once be set aside for street work in the district which contributed it as taxes.

Why Todd Was Preferred.

The Fire Commission voted yesterday in Acting Chief Todd yesterday at his request. He thought a statement in the Times that members of the commission had doubt as to his ability as Chief and consequently did not retain him permanently in that position was unjust so the commission voted unanimously to correct the "mistake." However, somewhat of a confusion did doubt his ability a week ago when three of them, including the Mayor, voted to make Capt. Eley chief, or at least, their action implied doubt as to Todd had been sixty days trying to qualify and was a candidate to the last minute. Commissioner Haley said yesterday the only reason they did not retain Todd was that they wanted a more experienced man, one who had served in the business district.

Firemen Want to Parade.

A rescue from the Spanish War veterans that the members now serving in the fire department be allowed freedom from duty between 9 and 11:30 o'clock in the morning of Decoration Day was not granted by the Fire Commission yesterday, but was referred to the chief with power to act. There are twenty-eight firemen who would like to participate in the parade with their comrades and the chief will arrange the time for them if possible. But he told the commission that thirty men will have their weekly duty off at the same time and that twenty others will be on their annual vacations.

Capt. McMahon Not Disturbed.

Capt. Michael McMahon, retired, of the fire department, who has not been turned to duty. He is 51 years of age, has served twenty-five years in the department and was retired last September on half pay. The commission had received reports that he had returned some records and to show cause why he should not return to duty. Three physicians called the chief and said he was fit for work of any kind. The records were the journals of his company, which he said he had been told to keep as the department had no further use for them. He said Acting Chief Todd told him this but Todd said he was mistaken.

City Hall Brevities.

The San Pedro Lumber Company has asked the Council for a franchise for a spur track from the San Pedro narrow gauge road on Vermont avenue, north of Sixty-first street, to its land on the east side of the street.

The Gamewell fire alarm company refused to deliver $15 worth of supplies to the city on the order of the chief because no requisition had been sent with the order. The commission drew the legal requisition. The company refused the commission that the city had received thousands of dollars worth of supplies which it would not pay for or return, but is still using.

Hearing on the bids for fire hose will not be held until next Wednesday afternoon because no quorum was possible.

Julius Milgrom, who has been in the examination of Donovan. He board a part of it just before noon, and said that he might have excused it if it were not for the fact that the court is quite evident that the most interesting part of the affair will never be known, namely that the verdict of the jury.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

HALF-MILLION TRIAL BEGINS.

LARGE SUM INVOLVED IN WILLS WILL CONTEST.

Hearing Likely to Continue Three Weeks as There is a Great Deal of Accounting to Be Done Over—Books Must Be Examined—Hinges Largely on Alleged Trustship.

The long-standing contest involving W. LeMoine Williams as plaintiff, and M. F. Williams, Louise E. M. Brainerd, et al., as defendants, to declare a trust and settle certain debts, began before Judge Wilbur yesterday morning. It is believed that he hearing will continue at least three weeks. Several efforts have been made to settle the case out of court, but they have all failed. The amount in involved includes property worth in excess of $500,000, the real estate being among the most valuable in Los Angeles. The plaintiff and defendant, M. F. Williams, are brother and sister, and the sole children of John A. and Charlotte L. Willis.

It is alleged in the complaint that on August 1, 1931, John A. Willis made his last will, devising his property, his death occurred November 26, of that year, leaving as his next of kin and sole heirs at law, his widow, Charlotte L. Willis, his son, the plaintiff, and his daughter, M. F. Willis, with an estate, that at the death of John A. Willis, October 5, 1933, was worth $500,000.

On December 21, 1931, the plaintiff and Robert W. Finkbeiner were appointed executors and on July 25, 1933, the whole of the estate, after the payment of debts and certain legacies, was distributed to Charlotte L. Willis, the widow.

It is alleged by the plaintiff that the provisions of the will of the father created an express trust in all the property of which he died seized; and that M. F. Willis, the defendant, never did at any time found any of the charitable institutions referred to in the will of the testator. It is further alleged that the defendant, M. F. Willis, never did at any time found any of the charitable institutions referred to in the will of the testator. It is further alleged that the defendant, M. F. Willis, never did at any time found any of the charitable institutions referred to in the will of the testator.

It is further alleged that property was sold in Duluth, Minn., for $30,000, and that $15,000 of this sum was invested in real estate in Los Angeles, the title being conveyed to M. F. Willis, who paid no consideration for same; that M. F. Willis and the defendant, Brainerd, entered into the real estate business in Los Angeles, and that the property which the investments were made, was conveyed one-half to M. F. Willis, and one-half to Brainerd. It is also set forth that since the death of Charlotte L. Willis, M. F. Willis has agreed to convey to Brainerd all her right in the property, and M. F. Willis is denying the plaintiff's right to an accounting.

Charlotte L. Willis died October 5, 1933, leaving all and is believed to be pretended to devise to M. F. Willis, all the residue of the trust property. Louise E. M. Brainerd was nominated executrix of the estate, November 18, 1933. Another charge of the plaintiff is that M. F. Willis is 56 years of age, in poor health, and without any business experience, receiving the rents for the property and using the same for her own purposes.

The prayer of the petition is that the court hold that M. F. Willis has the title to the property as trustee for herself and the plaintiff, that the property be sold, and the proceeds be divided equally between the plaintiff and the defendant. On the part of the defendants, it is contended that there was no creation of an express trust, that the will gave M. F. Willis full power to dispose of the property as she desired.

The afternoon session of the court was spent reading the pleadings in the case, which were very voluminous. The taking of testimony will begin this morning.

ORANGE PROPERTY INVOLVED.

In Judge Conroy's court yesterday, M. L. Bellus secured a judgment for $10,000 against D. L. Peters, a promoter, on account of a deal involving the sale and transfer of the gas plant at Orange.

It seems that Bellus, Peters and John W. Kemp, entered into a contract for the purpose of embezzling the gas plant, and the plaintiff, Bellus, is suing for the amount, which he says was paid by mistake.

TRIAL NEARLY OVER.

HIS THEFTSTORY.

The evidence against John Sheridan Donovan, an actor, accused of embezzling from Mrs. S. A. Brooks $2100, was closed yesterday at 4 o'clock, and the argument was begun. The speaking continued until the dinner hour, when the court adjourned for an hour, and reconvened for the completion of the efforts of the attorneys. The charge of Judge Davis will be given this morning at 10 o'clock, and Donovan will soon learn his fate.

Most of the day was spent hearing the story of the accused, and the defendant, with as many aliases as suits of fancy clothes, rehearsed his connection with the Brooks family. He told a good story, too, creating the impression that there had been some things in the case that had not been brought out in court.

Dressed in a swaggy suit of gray, a fancy shirt, dapper shoes, and with his hair combed back, Donovan looked like Edwin Booth in the Hamlet soliloquy scene. Donovan told the story of his life, as the heroine would have told it, and the big scenes of a melodrama, to the accompaniment of creepy music.

In the outset, Donovan acknowledged that he had been known under many names—Jack E. May, Clare J. Golden, J. E. Donovan, and others. He said he was a gambler, and that he was playing in a high-priced or cheap house. He had been in a summer garden, in the suburbs of Akron, O., and he alleged that he had played engagements at Drury Lane Theater, London, followed by a short season at the Lyceum Theater, London, where Sir Henry Irving was appearing. He said his real name was John Edmund Sheridan Donovan, and that he would be 36 years of age today.

Donovan detailed his going and comings with Mrs. Brooks, and said there was no truth in the statement that he had picked up the money after it had fallen from her hand-bag at Mrs. Brown's, but that she gave it to him in the parlor of the Alexandria Hotel, and at the same time he gave her the money. There was no doubt of the unfortunate man's mental unsoundness, but it is alleged that he was a gambler, and that he was in the country, and upon reaching New York, all such are turned back to the country, and upon reaching New York, all such are turned back to the country, and upon reaching New York, all such are turned back to the country.

Donovan's story of the entire transaction, the witness declared that the transaction between them was a mutual one, and that he was not surprised that he was arrested. Mrs. Brooks was not present during the examination of Donovan. She board a part of it just before noon, and said that he might have excused it if it were not for the fact that the court is quite evident that the most interesting part of the affair will never be known, namely that the verdict of the jury.

LAPIQUE REDIVIVUS.

BRINGS SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

John Lapique, who within the past three years has been much in the local judicial limelight, both as attorney and a prisoner at the bar, is again to the fore. Yesterday, he brought an action for damages for alleged false imprisonment, in $50,000, against Judge Charles Monroe, former Judge W. H. Jamison, sheriff Hammett, Dist. Atty. Fred C. Loring, and others, who County Clerk Keyes, Court Clerk Buterworth, and about thirty-five other defendants of various degrees of prominence.

It will be recalled that Lapique got into trouble over a land option covering lots 3 and 4, worth $100,000, in the Corcoran tract, and that after a trial before Judge Jamison, he was sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years, it being shown that the defendant was guilty of making false pretenses in regard to the purchase of the property. The amount in involved includes property worth in excess of $500,000, the real estate being among the most valuable in Los Angeles. The plaintiff and defendant, M. F. Williams, are brother and sister, and the sole children of John A. and Charlotte L. Willis.

It is alleged in the complaint that on August 1, 1931, John A. Willis is denying the plaintiff's right to an accounting.

Charlotte L. Willis died October 5, 1933, leaving all and is believed to be pretended to devise to M. F. Willis, all the residue of the trust property. Louise E. M. Brainerd was nominated executrix of the estate, November 18, 1933. Another charge of the plaintiff is that M. F. Willis is 56 years of age, in poor health, and without any business experience, receiving the rents for the property and using the same for her own purposes.

The prayer of the petition is that the court hold that M. F. Willis has the title to the property as trustee for herself and the plaintiff, that the property be sold, and the proceeds be divided equally between the plaintiff and the defendant. On the part of the defendants, it is contended that there was no creation of an express trust, that the will gave M. F. Willis full power to dispose of the property as she desired.

BLEW UP BABY.

WIFE GIVEN DIVORCE.

According to the testimony of Irene Cody, in Judge Hutton's court, yesterday, her husband, George C. Cody, an electrician, must have been a monster. She testified that when her baby was three days old, when the child refused to take sustenance, he blew into its mouth and almost strangled the infant because it cried. He declared that he would find out why the child did not take its milk. Because his wife had a bad cough, he told her he would knock her head off, as she was only shamming.

GAS PLANT SALE.

IN JUDGE CONROY'S COURT.

In Judge Conroy's court yesterday, M. L. Bellus secured a judgment for $10,000 against D. L. Peters, a promoter, on account of a deal involving the sale and transfer of the gas plant at Orange.

It seems that Bellus, Peters and John W. Kemp, entered into a contract for the purpose of embezzling the gas plant, and the plaintiff, Bellus, is suing for the amount, which he says was paid by mistake.

CONSENTS TO SERVE.

E. A. Hartman, executor of the estate of Guillermo Andrade, who is suing for the amount, which he says was paid by mistake.

Under the terms of the agreement, the initial payment, and of this amount, Bellus furnished $5000. Peters $1000, while Kemp put up his legal fees as an attorney. He said, as an effect for the cash of the other partners in the business. It was afterward ascertained that the price of the gas works was but $27,500, instead of $100,000 as alleged by Peters, also that the $1000 paid by Peters was returned to him by the owner of the business, so that really Peters had nothing but his work in the investment.

But in the meantime, 40,000 shares of the capital stock of the concern had been issued to Peters, 40,000 to Kemp, and 40,000 to Bellus, out of a total issue of 120,000 shares. Peters proceeded to sell his stock, and the amount of the judgment against him is what the stock issued to him is said to be worth.

FUNNY "BIBERY."

GOLD PIECE AN EXHIBIT.

Ben Lepton, one of the more or less important witnesses in the action on trial before Judge Houser, involving damages amounting to $15,000, in the case brought by John and Mary Kraus against Peter Dugan, created a mild sensation at yesterday's hearing. The object of the litigation is to recover from Dugan on account of injuries inflicted upon Mary Kraus by Peter and William Dugan, at an entertainment given by a party of Lithuanian people on South Broadway, last November. The witness testified that he had been given a $10 bill by John Nevarro, for which he was to testify in favor of the plaintiff.

The accused man took the stand and denied the charge. He said that a few days ago, he had gone into a saloon for a drink, and tendered a $5 gold piece in payment. The bar-keep made a mistake in giving him the change, and instead of laying down $4.85, gave him $14.85, or $10 too much. Nevarro said that the extra spot was picked up by Lepton. The money was produced in court marked "Defendant's Exhibit A," and placed on file among the archives of the case.

INSANITY TROUBLES.

GERMAN MAY BE DEPORTED.

It is likely that the Federal authorities will be asked to investigate the case of Otto Goldsmith, who was up for examination in Judge Bordwell's court yesterday on a warrant charging him with insanity. There was no doubt of the unfortunate man's mental unsoundness, but it is alleged that he was a gambler, and that he was in the country, and upon reaching New York, all such are turned back to the country, and upon reaching New York, all such are turned back to the country.

Donovan's story of the entire transaction, the witness declared that the transaction between them was a mutual one, and that he was not surprised that he was arrested. Mrs. Brooks was not present during the examination of Donovan. She board a part of it just before noon, and said that he might have excused it if it were not for the fact that the court is quite evident that the most interesting part of the affair will never be known, namely that the verdict of the jury.

SOME WEEKS SINCE, N. R. RUTHERFORD, an attorney of this city, was granted a divorce from Delores Rutherford, the couple were married at Port Worth in September, 1906, but at that time she was a married woman, having a husband, O. Y. Rutherford, of Elmore, Okla., to whom she had been married in September, 1902. The witness testified that she had reason to believe that Charles was dead at the time of contracting the second ceremony, and did not know any better until she met him recently, when she met him at the Los Angeles postoffice.

HAD ANOTHER HUSBAND. Delilah Russell had her marriage to L. W. Russell annulled by Judge Hutton yesterday. ## WANTS THE PRIZE.

Presley Moore instituted an action against W. H. Peeler, editor of the Huntington Park Signal, in the Superior Court yesterday for recovery of $500 or a Buick automobile worth as much. It is alleged that the editor conducted what was known as the Huntington Park Signal Prize Contest, and that the capital prize was $500 in money or the auto. Moore says that the contest was unfairly conducted, and that he was entitled to the prize. He is asking for the prize, which was $500 in money or the auto. BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

PLAINT NOT QUINCY. In Judge Cole's court yesterday Elmer Dumbauld, charged with manslaughter in the killing of Charles McMillan on April 18, pleaded not guilty, and his hearing was set for July 5.

BACK TO WORK.

Judge Willis will resume work in Department Eleven this morning, after ten days spent at El Centro, where he presided for Judge Cole, who has been at work in the criminal department, but has closed his connection with the end of the Price case last night.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES. On the evening of December 34, 1908, T. Masac, then an employee of the City Engineer's office, boarded a car of the Los Angeles Railway Company, and while on the car, he was struck by a car of the same company, and was injured. He is suing for damages, and the case is being heard in Judge Hutton's court.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the National Seaside Company, capital stock, $100,000; incorporators, Gilbert E. Gardner, E. Gardner, and Clarence Brown; subscribed, $400; Northern California District Land and Improvement Company, capital stock, $10,000; incorporators, George W. Johnson, William E. Rodman, R. H. Garner, William Schade, Fred Adams, and H. T. Cooper; subscribed, $1750. Incorporated, $200,000; incorporators, James Sauter, George C. Gale, E. M. Jurman, and J. M. Lindsay; subscribed, $500.

FAYING TOO MUCH. The Major Brewer company was made a defendant in an action instituted by Dan Pitel in the Superior Court yesterday, alleging that there is a large amount of faying being done by the company, and that the plaintiff is suing for damages, and the case is being heard in Judge Hutton's court.

We Believe In Doing One Thing Well

For that reason we have confined the business of this bank to SAVINGS ACCOUNTS exclusively.

We do not believe a bank carrying both commercial and savings accounts can give as attentive and adequate a service to savings account depositors as the bank conducting an exclusive savings account business.

If you will make yourself acquainted with the advantages the "Equitable" offers, you will see wherein our service will be of great benefit to you.

The COMPUTING OF INTEREST MONTHLY is a point which appeals to our many depositors, for by this method money on deposit may be withdrawn at any time, under normal conditions, with practically no forfeiture of interest.

This one point, combined with the strength of the Equitable, makes it a bank that should appeal to anyone wishing to open a savings account.

CAPTURES VICIOUS EX-CONVICT.
The detective department received a telegram from Bakersfield, last night, announcing that William L. Green, who committed a vicious assault on a 13-year-old newsboy in this city, April 26,
had been captured by Detective Boyd, who went in pursuit of him. Green was released from Folsom penitentiary August 26, last, after he had served five years for grand larceny. The attack committed on George Michel, No.
518 East Third street, seriously injured the child and it is possible he may be maimed for life. When the nature of Green's crime became known in Bakersfield there were threats of lynching by citizens who gathered around the jail.

BROOKLYN-EVERGREEN.
At a meeting of the Brooklyn Evergreen Improvement Association last evening, in the Presbyterian Church, Forest avenue and Malabar street, the following committee was appointed to circulate a petition asking that the streets in the Forest Heights district be improved: Otto Shultz, R. Cross, R. E. Edmundson, C. F. Brill, G. A.
Atkinson, J. W. Owen. The committee appointed at the last meeting reported that a petition asking for the paving of Macy street from Main to Keller streets has been filed with the City Clerk.

believed it could run faster than any car of a similar make.
He was commenting on its qualities
in the presence of Harry Crawford, who owned another Ford, when he was challenged for a race to Oxnard.
Each owner was so enthusiastic that he offered to bet his machine and $25.
The race was agreed on. Each executed a bill of sale and put it and $25 in escrow with a sporting editor.
Grider's auto was then in the Standard Motor Car Company's shops for repairs, but he was allowed to take it out for the race, without paying his bill.

Crawford was the first to arrive at the goal. Each drove his car back to this city, Grider returning his machine to the Standard garage. Crawford obtained his bill of sale and $25 and made a demand for the auto. His request was refused, as the garage owners desired to collect the $200 bill before giving up the security. They were arguing and threatening to sue each other, when N. C. Folsom heard that Grider had an automobile. He had a $64 bill against Grider and immediately filed suit in Justice Sumner-field's court. He was given judgment and Deputy Constable Richardson went out to attach the car.

On the advice of an attorney, the officers of the Standard company would not give it up. They were ordered to produce it. Instead of doing so, they spirited it away. E. Roger Stearns, the president, was then arrested on a charge of grand larceny. He offered to give up the machine, if the attorneys would drop the prosecution. This was done.

Meantime Richardson had advertised that he would sell the car. There were several bidders present and there was disappointment when the machine could not be found. When he got possession of it, he again advertised the sale of it. Automobiles had become afraid that they would only be buying a lawsuit and refused to bid. Flannigan happened to be present and offered to give $1. As he was the highest bidder, the constable executed to him a bill of sale.

Crawford then began proceedings in the Superior Court for the car. The motor car company took a hand and began to think that he had bought litan began to think that he had bought a gold brick with his silver dollar, but retained Attorney Sorenson to look into the status of the affair. The lawyer looked up the family history of the machine, and decided that Flannigan was really the true owner. They in-case was called for trial, in the corridor.

All the parties met just before the door outside the courtroom. Some one suggested that to flip coins would be an easy way to settle the difficulty.
The suggestion fell on fertile soil. Like actions of bloated plutocrats, the contestants drew coins from their pockets and prepared to toss with the auto as a stake. Crawford backed out. He considered that the others must believe they had little chance to win the car or they would not be willing to give up so easily. The case was called.
One of the important witnesses in the matter is Grider, who is a County Jail prisoner. He refused to go to court.
Judge Houser sent word to the Sheriff to bring him if it should be necessary to tie him to a cot. Despite his struggles, he was carried to the tribunal. He is now suffering a curtailment of his privileges as result of his stubbornness. It is likely that his reason for not wishing to go to court was that he did not care to have his recollection as to his palmy days freshened.

The case has become so tangled up the judge has required the attorneys to submit briefs, but it is likely that Flannigan may yet ride in his $1 machine.

Folsom lost his claim to it when it was sold, although the price did not pay the constable's fees. It is declared that Crawford's claim will be denied as the consideration for the transaction was a gambling debt. The Standard claim was clouded when the machine was secreted and by the fact that the company at one time accepted a note from Mrs. Grider in extinguishment of the repair and gasoline bill.

DEATH TAKES WARRIOR.
Veteran of Philippine Service Passes
Away Here Under Unusual Circumstances.

With none near to administer aid, Capt. Frank D. Tompkins died at his home yesterday afternoon after a sickness of only a few hours.

The circumstances surrounding the death were of a mysterious character and the coroner ordered a post mortem examination at the Pierce undertaking parlors.

Capt. Tompkins's mother-in-law, who arrived at the home, No. 1619 My-avenue, to find the officer dying, stated that there had been convulsions. This led the officials to suspect that there might have been the administration of poison with suicidal intent. Dr. Charles Dawley of No. 517 Boylston avenue was called and responded quickly, but Capt. Tompkins was dead before he reached the house.

Autopsy Surgeon Campbell made no official statement, but remarked that there was no presence of any poison, and that the heart and kidneys showed a diseased condition that might have caused death at any moment.

Capt. Tompkins had seen a number of years service. He was 36 years of age. According to the statements of his widow, who could give but a brief outline of his career, he enlisted in the Hospital Corps as a volunteer in the Philippines and was given an officer's commission for distinguished bravery in action.

He retired two years ago and came to California. He stopped for a while in Oakland with his uncle, formerly warden of San Quentin, and came south.
Last August he was married to a Los Angeles girl, Marguerite Fawcett. Mrs.
Tompkins is an actress for a moving picture concern. Two weeks ago she was thrown from a buggy while posing near Elysian Park. She was severely injured at that time and had just recovered.

Yesterday morning, according to her statement, her husband appeared sick when she kissed him good-by and started for her work. It was her first day at work since her accident and she was elated over her recovery.

She left the house with no forebodings. At that time her husband seemed to be suffering from nothing more serious than an attack of stomach trouble. Several hours later she was warned that Capt. Tompkins was in a serious condition and she hurried to residence of Dr. Dowley, and together they raced to the house in the physician's automobile.

It had been a race with death, however, and death had won. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

FUEL COMPANY IN TROUBLE.

Fuel Company, whose properties are in Las Animas county, Colorado, and Colfax county, New Mexico, is insolvent,
the United States Mortgage and Trust Company of New York has filed suit in the United States Circuit Court asking a receiver for the company. It is alleged the Yankee company is more than six months in arrears in the payments of interest upon a first mortgage executed to the New York company something over a year ago for the sum of $2,500,000. It is also alleged that the company is endeavoring to dispose of its properties without sanction of the mortgagees.

investment. His efforts seemed to satisfy the Council, but not so completely as the board's own showing. The hinge of the question was in the insinuation that over 100,000,000 gallons of water produced by the company were unaccounted for. This came from Engineer Comstock and led to the assertion that the Southern Pacific and Wilmington Transportation Company get this without account. This was disproved by the books of the company last night and by the further showing that the pumping reports were not based on measurement, but on the rated capacity of the pumps. It was shown that this assertion of Comstock's was baseless upon the acceptance of his own estimate of waste and other losses. Also that the per capita consumption disproved it.
No vote on rates was taken last night,
but expressions by members indicated that the reduction recommended for the Union Hollywood Company—from $1.80 minimum to $1.25—will be sustained by

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

JUNE may hold the record for weddings but the engagement honors have been captured this season by the month of May. Not for many seasons have so many interesting betrothals been made known in seven days as in the week just passed. Miss Florence Foy, probably one of the most charming and lovable of the girls, is engaged to Remington Olmsted of this city, and the son of Hon. and Mrs. John B. Olmsted of Buffalo, N. Y. The news, which is made known today for the first time, will add another bit of gay gossip in society circles. Miss Foy is a daughter of Mrs. Samuel Calvert Foy of San Rafael Heights, and is a Stanford graduate. Mr. Remington is a Harvard man, and is in business in Los Angeles. The wedding will be attractively unique and will be solemnized in the beautiful garden of the Foy home, overlooking the arroyo. The flowers, which at this time of year are in abundance, will be the only decorations used. June 3 has been decided upon for the date.

Another to the List.
Miss Emmie Luetzel and Craig C. Horton have also decided to wed. August has been chosen for the month of the wedding. This all-important secret is announced today by the parents of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Luetzel, of No. 622 Kennon avenue. Mr. Horton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Horton of No. 447 Grand avenue. Miss Luetzel is a member of the Cotter Club which is composed of young society maids and matrons.

Into New Home.
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Stanwood have moved into their new home at No. 241 Wilton place, and have as their house guest Mrs. L. Harter of Des Moines, Iowa.

House Party.
Mrs. Louis Zukerman of Ocean Park will entertain next week with a house party for Miss Myrtle Gonzales whose engagement to J. Parks Jones was recently announced.

Miss Page Hostess.
Miss Lulu Page presided recently at a box party at the Orpheum followed by a theater supper given by her. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mathew S. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. John W. McAlister, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Newton and Mrs. Page.

On Fishing Tour.
Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Newton formerly of Hotel Hollywood are domiciled at Hotel New Marlton where they will receive friends at the conclusion of a fishing trip.

Large Reception.
Bishop and Mrs. Joseph H. Johnson were host and hostess at a large reception given last evening at Kramer's for the members of the Episcopal Convention and their friends. This is an annual affair presided over by Bishop and Mrs. Johnson. The ballroom was decorated with palms while the supper rooms were fragrant with sweet peas.

For Miss Rowley.
Mrs. Benjamin Harwood of Oxford avenue was hostess yesterday at an informal bridge party given as a courtesy to Miss Grace Rowley.

For Bride-elect.
One of the prettiest affairs of the week was a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Pearl Correa of No. 918 West Forty-eighth street in honor of Miss Florence Crankhite and Miss Jones, whose engagement was announced a few weeks ago. The house was tastefully decorated in pink hearts, and pink and white sweet peas. Progressive whist was played. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Holman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Braden, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pearson, Jean Wright, Sadie Underwood, Beattie Cronkhite, Ione Ditch, Jessie MacCabe, Ida Rother, Messrs. B. Thomas Monson, J. Rollin Kerns, Henry Garren, Frank Miller, and Earl J. Correa.

Formal Announcement.
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Seaman of No. 2241 Scarff street formally announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Josephine Alice to James Albert Roberts of this city.

Home Again.
Dr. Ernest Crutcher is at home from a month's vacation on Puget Sound and in the mountains of Montana. Mrs. Crutcher is still in the north, but will return shortly, on the close of school at Palo Alto, where their daughter, Ruth, is attending.

To Tour Orient.
Mrs. C. W. Christian, Miss Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. McMorris of Hotel Heinemann will shortly make an extended tour, under the auspices of the steamship department, German-American, Hawaiian, Korean, Chinese, Japanese, Korea, Siberia, and the Orient. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peters will leave on the same steamer.

Whist Party.
An enjoyable whist party was given Wednesday evening at the residence of Edward Phillips, No. 607 West Forty-third street by the Misses Eva and Beulah Phillips. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roach, Miss Marie Umann, Miss Laura McDonald, Miss Beulah Seely, Miss Anna Chapin, Miss Beulah Ripley, Miss Edna Klein, Miss Eva De On, Miss Louise Thomas, Mrs. L. Phillips, James Apple, Bert Hewitt, George Acker, Jack Roberts, George Seely, William Prucha, Edward Howell, Ira Lambert, H. Bean, Russell Klein, Joseph Klein, Harry Phillips. Prizes were won by Edward Howell, Miss Beulah Ripley, Miss Edna Klein, and George Seely. After the party, lunch was served in the dining-room, which was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and May baskets. The prevailing colors were pink and white.

Birthday Celebration.
Mr. and Mrs. George H. Stoll of Serrano avenue, Hollywood, entertained recently in honor of the eighteenth birthday of their daughter Margaret. Those who assisted in the celebration were Mrs. Lee Fleming, Mrs. J. P. Stoll, Mrs. A. Stoll and Mrs. C. P. Stoll. The house was prettily decorated with Shasta daisies and American Beauty roses. In a room especially decorated for that purpose, presided Miss Alma Fleming at the punch bowl. The color scheme throughout being yellow and white. The guests were the Misses Gertrude Jones, Margaret Rocco, Lillian Cox, Edna Cumpston, Estella Graham, Irene McMillen, Ida May Otto, Myrtle Blusser, Beatrice Chambers, Rose and Frances Dominguez, Maud Peering, Victoria, Anna and Grace Velar, Delphi Randolph, Aida Castellan, Marjorie Melville, Grace and Josephine Campbell, Joyce Standley, Irene McGray, and the Messrs. John and Leon Spinks, Milo Bekins, Harold Chambers, Clarence and Homer Brower, Carl, Ernest and Robert Wirsching, Norman McMillan, Emil Castellano, Frank Rocco, Arthur Green, Marvin McKensie, Frank Peering, Arthur Cummings, Arthur Letts, Jr., Jeff Gilman, Lawrence Stoll, George Stoll, Jr., Jack Ridgway, Harold Melville and Reinold and Lowell Chambers.

HELPING HAND.
HOLD PARTY TO AID THE BOYS.
FUNCTION ARRANGED FOR GEORGE JUNIOR REPUBLIC.

Daughters of American Revolution Plan Benefit for Institution Which is Located Near China-Urgent Need of Money to Meet Pressing Obligations Presented.

In the interest of a fund for the benefit of the California George Junior Republic located near China the Daughters of the American Revolution have planned a card party. The function is to take place at the Woman's Clubhouse, No. 940 South Figueroa street, at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The price of tickets for the function has been fixed at 50 cents each. They may be obtained at Blackstone's, Villard's, the Boston store, the C. M. Staub Shoe Company, the Hotel Hayward, and the Westminster Hotel.

O. T. Johnson has subscribed $1000 and E. J. Marshall $500 to head a general subscription list. A general request has been issued that subscriptions be sent to Judson M. Davis, president of the association, at 215 Grant building.

At this time the republic finds itself in urgent need of funds to further the work already accomplished. The buildings are overcrowded and inadequate, and pending the installation of the irrigation system now being put in, the comparative non-productiveness of the ranch compels the raising of at least $10,000 within the next three weeks, to meet pressing obligations, and relieve congested conditions, so as to enable the association to take more children, now on the waiting list, some of whom will otherwise have to be sent to Whittier or Ione.

"Nothing without labor," is the motto of the citizens, who are self-governing. Each new citizen is taught that only by industry and study can he expect to earn his way, financially and in the respect of his fellow-citizens. Five hours for work and five hours for school is the rule which must be obeyed, and any infraction results in arrest and subsequent imprisonment in the community jail, when the citizen must work for the government without pay.

The boys are given as much freedom as if at home. There are no barriers, no visitors' days, no special hours. You are invited to visit the republic at any time, and to stay long enough to see what is being accomplished.

The republic has been at its present location only a little over a year, but in that time a marvelous change has been wrought, entirely by the efforts of the boy citizens.

hard roads made about the place. Two hundred fruit trees are to be set out immediately, also 100 eucalyptus trees around the estate.

After two or three unsuccessful attempts a well has been drilled with a good flow of water and two miles of pipe line will be made and laid by the citizens this summer. An old shed is to be rebuilt and used for a school room.

In the past year 106 citizens have been enrolled, eight have been sent to Whittier or Ione, thirty-seven are now at the republic, sixty-one have returned to their homes and are now doing well. Six helpers are now at the republic: A superintendent, a steward, teacher, matron, wood worker and farmer.

The expenses include board and tuition of citizens and helpers, salaries of the helpers, equipment and tools both for outdoor and indoor work. These expenses average about $1000 a month. About $350 a month is paid by the county, and the balance is made up by the auxiliaries to raise. In the past year the auxiliaries have raised $10,000 to carry their share of the expense, but there is great need for more room and more equipment, so as to be able to receive more children.

Auxiliaries have been formed in Pasadena, Pomona, Long Beach, Los Angeles, Redlands and others will be organized soon. Memberships range from $5 a year to $50 a year, and gifts of money of any amount, clothing, bedding, books and pictures will be acceptable.

The Civil Service Commission.
LOS ANGELES, May 18.—[To the Editor Times:] I have been somewhat interested of late in the various comments upon the Civil Service Commission, including those of Judge Silent and the editorial in your own paper this morning. I am only interested in them as they concern the present commission. In your editorial this morning you state that it is exceedingly difficult to secure the consent of the commission to the dismissal of any employee. I wish to say that the unanimous policy of the present commission is to dismiss any employee for any ground which would be held in a well conducted business enterprise. Of course, it would be much more agreeable to the head of a city department to be able to fill all of the places under his control with his own appointees, and with a good man at the head of a department it is not to be expected that it will be done with good judgment; but the weakness of human nature is so well known that civil service principles are being invoked in all matters of public employment, and these principles are so well established in the hearts of the voters at large that one might as well try to repeal the charter by giving the head of a department the right to dismiss any employee for good cause, the employee having the right to appeal to the civil service if his dismissal is without good reason. This looks to me like a great improvement upon the present system, and will no doubt work well in practice.

The present commission is endeavoring to conduct its office in a plain, impartial, business-like way. Dismissal of employees for political reasons or to make room for friends will not be allowed, but on the other hand there will be no difficulty in discharging any employee who is not doing his work faithfully and efficiently.

HIS DESPERATE EFFORT.
Delirious Hospital Patient Tries to Kill Himself to Escape Being Murdered.

Suffering from delirium tremens, Raymond Origo made an effort to commit suicide at the County Hospital, early yesterday morning, by slashing his throat with a piece of broken glass.

Origo, who is 27 years of age, was arrested on a charge of petit larceny and his condition later became such that it was found necessary to send him to the County Hospital for treatment. Shortly before midnight yesterday Origo, suffering from a hallucination that his enemies were going to kill him, broke a bottle and gashed his throat with a bit of the broken glass. He was quickly overpowered and prevented from doing himself further injury.

DESPONDENT, WOULD DIE.
Italian Sends Wife to Beach and Then Tries Suicide by the Gas Route.

Despondent over financial difficulties, C. Oriandi, an Italian living at No. 767 Wall street, tried to commit suicide late yesterday afternoon by inhaling gas from a gas cylinder in another room in time to save his life.

Oriandi has been suffering with locomotor ataxia for ten years. This affliction, with money troubles, made life unbearable and yesterday he sent his wife to the beach in order to get her out of the way. He then prepared for death and was unconscious when a lodger was attracted to the room by the fumes. Dr. Rex D. Duncan was called in and, after working over the man for more than an hour, pronounced him out of danger.

TAKEN ON BENCH WARRANT.
Felipe Lastra was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Alexander and Sequevel yesterday, on a bench warrant from Judge Davis's court. He is a witness in the murder case of Juan Miranda, who is accused of having killed Santos Robles, and is said to have refused to answer a subpoena. He will probably be taken in court today.

ALTORE TRIAL RESUMED.
After a long argument as to the sufficiency of the indictment, the trial of Oriando Lastra was resumed yesterday afternoon in the United States District Court. He is charged with perjury in connection with billing out an application for taking a civil service examination. The case will not be finished this week.

EVERY lady in Los Angeles will be interested in a course of lectures soon to be given by the famous culinary authority, Mrs. Helen Armstrong.

Mrs. Armstrong is not only one of the most advanced and best informed cooking experts in the country, but she has the faculty of explaining her ideas and methods in such a clear, interesting manner that everyone is charmed, both by her pleasing address and by the fund of useful information which she imparts. These lectures will be held

MAY 16th to 28th
In Blanchard's Hall
233 So. Broadway, Opposite City Hall
At 2:30 Every Afternoon

The general subject of Mrs. Armstrong's lectures will be

"Nature's Gift from the Sunny South"

During the course of her lectures she shows both how to make dainty new things to eat and new ways of making old dishes more toothsome and wholesome. After each lecture Mrs. Armstrong also answers any questions on cookery or table service on which information is desired.

There is a different lecture every afternoon. If you hear one you want to hear them all. You can't afford to miss them.

A black and white illustration of a man in a tuxedo standing over a cityscape. The man is depicted from the waist up, wearing a dark tuxedo jacket, a white shirt with a bow tie, and a striped vest. He is holding a small object in his right hand and has his left hand on his hip. He is looking down at the city below. The cityscape features several buildings, including a large one with many windows and a smaller one with a sign that says "HOTEL". The man's legs are spread wide, and his feet are positioned over the city buildings. The background shows a city skyline with various buildings and a cloudy sky.

TRAVEL HEAVY.

Travel into the San Joaquin Valley is heavy at the present time. No. 7, the S. P. overland from the south, arrives here almost every morning in two trains, one from Los Angeles, the north, is crowded with passengers.

Orange trees continue to be poured into Tulare county from the southern part of the State and Horticultural Commissioner Schulz and his deputies are busy inspecting stock. Thousands of orange trees are being brought in from Yuma, Exeter, Lindsay, Dacor, Woodlake and other sections of the citrus belt. Tulare county nurserymen find them more and more desirable and there are few trees to be had locally.

In the Visalia land office Benjamin H. Brown, county assessor, has made a homestead entry for the west half of the northeast quarter and north half of southeast quarter of section 31-55-28. Also a desert land entry for the south half of the southeast quarter of section 31-55-28.

Young Man Tries to Kill Father in Rig Near Fresno and Is Thrown Out of Vehicle.

FRESNO, May 19.—(Clarence) Mutchler, a young man who a few months ago was released from the Stockton jail for insanity, has been charged with an unprovoked assault with a knife upon his father late yesterday afternoon while the pair were driving in a car on the Fresno highway. In the desperate struggle the elder man threw his son from the buggy and made his escape. Mutchler, who is 35 years of age, slightly wounded him in the neck. The insane man was arrested.

BLACK MAMMY!

Let us raise a shining statue To Black Mammy and Uncle Mose,

Who taught us gray white children
How to put on our fine clothes,
And make our bodies trim and trim,
And how to sing and dance
When youth held every pleasure,
And life was in a trance!

My heart beats back to childhood
And that blue grass sunny land
When beaming old Black Mammy
Held me by my trembling hand,
And led me through the meadows
In search of birds and flowers,
Where 'twas her loving arm that held me
Through sleeping sunny hours.

And through the fearful Civil War
That scarred our happy land,
When Black Mammy and dear Uncle Mose
Stood by my hand in hand,
Not knowing whether blue or gray
Were really right or wrong,
But doing every duty
With the sweetness of a song!

Then rear on high a monument
To truth and trust and love,
And there on it place Black Mammy
With her spinny face above,
And by her side old Mose must stand
In laughing ebony hue,
To glorify the picture
Of a pair so fond and true!

BROADWAY, EIGHTH & HILL STREETS.

Our Advance Credit Account system embodies the desirable features of both cash and credit shopping—the faults of neither.

Do You Really Know Hamburger's?

Do you realize that "The Big White Store" is not only the largest in the West, but that no other has higher ideals or makes a more consistent effort to live up to them? We spare no outlay of time, talent or financial expenditure that enables us to offer the most complete and comprehensive stocks of merchandise it is possible to assemble. Thoroughly dependable merchandise which we sell at prices as low as such goods can legitimately be sold. Also we make a point of adding the best of domestic and foreign novelties as fast as they appear. We know these things very well, indeed; but do you know them. If not, won't you come in and get acquainted?

Special Friday REMNANTS at low prices. Silks, dress goods, cotton, trimmings, embroideries, laces, etc., etc.

White Lingerie Waists

In Gala Array

And the price is only $1! White laces and lingers with backs and fronts most attractively trimmed with embroidery insertions and touches of lace and various size tucks. About a dozen different models, each seemingly prettier than the other. Well made waists that would cost you double, should you buy the materials and try to make them.

Some smart tailored waists, also, at the same price. These are of madras and linen and have plaited fronts and backs, or are in the usual mannish shirt effects.

Skirt News: These $7.50

Panamas and New Worsteds

Many new ideas expressed in their designing. Some show the combination box and side plaits; others with box or side plaits only. Blues, browns and blacks predominate in the chiffon panamas, while the worsteds show all shades of gray and tan. The cut and finish—the really swaggy appearance of these popular styles—will make you a friend of this department.

Leading Silk Weaves

At Lowest Possible Prices

All is not silk that shimmers. The real test comes with the wearing. The silks here offered are rich in texture, of harmonious and pleasing designs and coloring. If made of any of these, your new silk gown will give you renewed satisfaction every time you wear it—and you can wear it a great many times before it begins to show signs of service.

NOVELTY SILKS—Printed warp taffetas and jacquards in a variety of pretty colorings and combinations. These are especially favored for shirtwaists and shirtwaist suits and gowns of the less elaborate models.

$1.00

ALL SILK POPLIN—22 inches wide. Comes in pretty, plain color combinations with self-colored polka dots. Stylish, elegant and thoroughly up to date in every detail. You get perfect suit satisfaction by selecting this popular weave.

$1.00

CREPE METEOR—44 inches wide; in a rich, clinging quality and a variety of particularly handsome colors. Nothing is better adapted to the development of elaborate gowns, especially models requiring effective draping.

This Rocker $2.75

You'll wonder how we can sell it for that price when you see it. It has the solid saddle seat, and is beautifully finished in quartered golden oak. Splendidly made and very comfortable. Special at

Wall Papers

Artists to Help You Select Them

And so much depends on the selection you make! You either make or mar—for beauty or for incongruity—and services, such as we offer, are of untold value to parties planning or improving a room or a home. Men who have made a life-time study of certain lines can tell you in a moment what to do. The late shipments include new two-toned browns and greens for living rooms; tapestries for dining room and Colonial stripes for the bed room. Prices moderate.

The China Sale Is Still On

"I'm so charmed with this china sale," said one shopper who had been enjoying our big basement event on Monday. Many more said equally nice things. If you've been to this once-in-a-lifetime sale, you will heartily agree with them. If you haven't, there's much pleasure and a deal of profit in store for you. Hurry, though, if you want to make the most of this chance to buy china at a saving.
